Note 1: About 35 of the books from this period are listed on the following page instead of this one, as they remain among my current reading.

Note 2: Well over two-thirds of my reading over the period 1955-1995 came from mostly obscure political journals, pamphlets, and leaflets.

That list, however, is much more difficult to compile.

Note 3: Header dates refer to when I read the books; individual dates refer to the copyright or publication date..
